

Its Not Always Dark At Seven OClock

By Doug Chaytor

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 312 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. This is a must read true story, brilliantly told from the horses mouth. Doug having recently retired reflects on events over the past 60 years or so, with a riveting account of his life in the fast lane of the contracting world. Married to Hilda for the past 43 yrs he reflects on the trials and tribulations in those early days when due to the untimely death of Hildas parents they prepared to bring up Hildas brother young Thomas who at 3 yrs, old was left without mother or father. His work in Tony Blairs Trimdon home, his run in with the local police together with his encounter in Durham prison all reflects some of the many hilarious moments. How from running a small general dealers shop in Trimdon, to purchasing a 2 acre small holding would turn into an organisation beyond his wildest dreams. However as things seemed to be going well and looking forward to retirement, one never knows what's around the corner, and in this case Fate had a nasty trick up its sleeve when tragedy struck with the death of Hildas brother Derek...
