Outskirts Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Stories and poems that have a very wide range of subjects which will, I believe, attract a varied range of demographics. There is something in here that will interest a very wide reading audience. Some of the stories are true and some are fiction. The first poem is the first thing I ever wrote and have had it called profound . It was based on a family who had just lost a family member. I wrote it in 1996. When my brother in law passed in 2010, my sister said if she had not known better, she would have thought it was written for her and her husband. Praise: Ms. Deal has great insight regarding the wishes and fears of senior citizens. I have enjoyed reading her articles. -Helen Walker, Aurora, CO. Very compelling reading. The stories make you want to keep going. They make you want more. -Linda Farr, Olean, NY. I have found her stories to be very interesting and good reading. -Sue Chambers, Aurora, CO. When you read 50 and Mentally Ill, you better have tissues handy, it is a tear jerker. -Joyce Holden, Crystal River, FL.
