It) ACK in the noisy, man-made town, Walls high and blank, smoke-fouled and brown, A factory whose clattering wheels With rattling speed are crazed and hot, Where life its best and worst reveals, Where money is and man is not--There was but little to impart Content to Conrad s harrassed heart. He missed the ocean, missed the hills, Woods, meadows, vales and romping rills. II A man within the city pent, Whose mornings, noons and nights are spent As if in prison serving time To expiate some flagrant crime, 9 129 Is blind to nature s changing scene, Earth, sky, and clouds that intervene, And all the rich and floral blooms That dress the fields and breathe perfumes. His landscape is the dusty street, The back yard is his cool retreat, His trees are poles with wires strung, His birds are...
