Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Lou Malloy never expected to hear from his brother, Sam Malloy and when he did he never expected it would be under these circumstances. Ever one to work the angles when it came to making money, Lou was convinced that his brother was in trouble and wanted to help, but also did not trust his brother when it came to telling the truth. Hilary, on the other hand, was not convinced. Lou had never mentioned a bother and as far as she was concerned he needed to stay lost. It seemed Sam had bought a sea food fishing operation in a place called Unalaska. And if that wasn t bad enough, Lou would later learn that the acquisition was made under illegitimate means. But that was a personal issue and Lou had been given, as long as he was there, a small job to do by Max Reynolds at Homeland Security. It seemed that Russia was working to get Alaska back from the United States because there was a possibility that they never paid for it and Malloy and Kelly had to find proof that they did. In addition, there was another shipment of gold sent by the United States to back up the payment fiasco, and that had been lost as well. All these events had taken place between 1868 and 1870 and had been lost in the events that soon shaped Russia s future with the execution of Nicholas II and his family and the Bolshevik Revolution resulting in a failure to follow up on the transaction s completion. To make things interesting an heir to the great Mongol leader, Genghis Khan who is called Sala...
