D., And Hon. Edward Salomon: At the Dedication of the Rooms in the South Wing of the Capital for the States Historical Society of Wisconsin, Wednesday Evening, January 24, 1866 The State Historical Society having labored many years under great disadvantages and inconveniences, for want of proper and commodious apartments, petitioned the legislature in January, 1865, for the use of the whole of the second story of the new south wing of the Capitol, which was readily granted, and the building commissioners directed to finish and prepare the rooms for the reception of the Society's Library, Gallery and Collections. During the year the rooms were finished under the direction of the architect, E. T. Mix, Esq., and in consultation with the Library committee of the Society. The two main rooms are each 56 feet long by 24 feet wide, and 24 feet high, which, with a hall between, 13 feet wide, are lined with shelves and cases. At the annual meeting of the Society, held at the...
