Right-hand Window.--The scourging of St. Andrew. Below, St. Andrew praying before his cross. As the fresco paintings on the side walls contain incidents in the life of St. Andrew, both previous and subsequent to those depicted in the windows, they are accordingly described here. On the left hand, -over the small side entrance--St. John the Baptist pointing out our Saviour to St. Andrew and the young St. John the Evangelist, (supposed to be the disciple alluded to in John i. 35--40) with the words, Behold the LAMB of GOD. Our Lord s attitude, pointing heavenwards, while in the act of beckoning, is expressive of His answer, Come and See, to their question, Master, where dwellest thou? Above, in a small circle, the...
