Excerpt: . . . instituted in this city in 1881, has continued its uninterrupted path, progress, advancement and success to this day; our Federation, which has not only helped to organize so large a number of our fellow-workmen into unions; which has not only secured economic and material improvement in their condition, but has obtained legislative and administrative action, national, State and municipal; our Federation, which has sown the seed of unity, fraternity and solidarity, by and through which the workers have a better sense of their duty to help them bear each others burdens; to realise that in the advancement of their brothers good they themselves are largely interested and advanced for their own good. We are proud, too, of the fact of having so nurtured and cultivated the general public mind that it has a better and higher conception of the rights and interests of the toilers. The movement of labor as expressed and typified by our trade unions and by the American Federation of Labor is constructive, not destructive, in character and achievement. It aims and works to build up character and manhood, and instills a higher conception of the duty of man to man. It proclaims as a cardinal principle, and acts upon it, that in this world of ours man cannot live for himself alone, but that in fact and in truth it is the duty of man to be his brothers keeper and helpmeet. To make man, woman and child more noble,...
