Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Fighting for Fairview The Great World War had brought many changes to Fairview, just as it had brought changes to other places far removed from the far-flung battle lines of Europe. The old frame high school was gone. In its place stood a long, low building of white brick. Twice that day Buddy Jones, captain of the nine, had gone through the building, from the laboratory on the top floor to the gymnasium and dressing room in the basement. To-night he stood across the road and surveyed it once more with proud eyes. Quick steps came along the sidewalk. Buddy glanced over his shoulder.
