Yet throughout the course of his lifetime he threw away a potential Hall of Fame career, two marriages, and countless opportunities. Then one night, rock bottom hit him like a one hundred mile an hour fastball. . . the wrong place, the wrong car, and perhaps the last wrong turn of his life. Alone in a cold prison cell, the roar of Yankee Stadium a distant memory, Joe is visited by an apparition. . . a vision of a man who claims to know the path to redemption. They will embark on a wild ride through the peaks and valleys of Joes life, in a last ditch attempt to right the wrongs. Along the way they will encounter the most serious threat to Joes eternal existence. . . the greatest icon in the history of the game. A rivalry dating back sixty years has come full circle, and now each man has something to lose. . . in the battle for Joe Pepitones soul. This item ships from multiple...
