Our country is yours; here you shall neither hunger nor thirst. No one shall insult you; no one shall rob you. I will take upon myself to supply all your wants. Bou Bekeur s word was as good as his deed. From that moment every individual belonging to the little troop was his guest. He sent to them his slaves laden with bread, dates, and roasted meats; in the evening he again supplied them with kouskousou, milk and vegetables; he joined the travellers at their meals, and kept them company. The same treatment was continued during the whole of their stay. When the day of their departure arrived, Bou Bekeur wished to regale the travellers with a final entertainment, and he assembled...
