Heritage Publishing House, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .2015 Book of the Year Christian Small Publishers Association, Historical Fiction 2014 Reader s Favorite Bronze Medal Winner, Christian-Historical Fiction Forced to flee war-torn Jerusalem in 70 A.D. Rebekah and her husband, Ethan, each take something of value: Rebekah, the cup of the Last Supper; Ethan, a copper scroll detailing the whereabouts of a vast Temple treasure. Ahead, separation and danger face them as each tries to survive. But it s not only external forces that could keep them apart forever but internal ones as they struggle to discover where their true treasure lies. Rebekah s Treasure has won first place for adult fiction in the Florida State Association National League of American Pen Women. The novel s combination of history, love and suspense will capture and engage readers right from the start. Rebekah s Treasure by Sylvia Bambola is a tale that will capture your attention and heart. Set in war-torn Israel when zealots fought for the honor of the Temple and Jerusalem, when the majesty and might of Rome became a terror and a scourge, one Jewish family s story twists and turns with passion, action, and love. This novel will not only entertain, but satisfy the most avid reader. Well done, Bambola. Well done. Barbara C. Nelson, author of Women on a Mission Sylvia Bambola, in her historical novel, Rebekah s Treasure, surrounds actual events with an intriguing fictional story and skillfully draws in the reader. Normally not a reader of fiction, myself, I found I was unable to put down this fascinating book until it was finished! Cindy Miller, author of The Home That God Built To read Rebekah s Treasure, by...
