DELTA, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 208 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. From the critically acclaimed author of Daddy Needs a Drink--hailed by the Los Angeles Times as consistently hilarious--comes a series of irreverent, wickedly observant essays about what it really means to be a teacher today. With his trademark wit and wisdom, Robert Wilder dissects the world's noblest profession--whether he's taming a classroom full of hormonal teenagers or going one-on-one with the school bully. Wilder was twenty-six when he found his true calling. Leaving a lucrative advertising career in New York, he got a job as an assistant first-grade teacher at a Santa Fe alternative school--and never looked back. Now he brings his unique perspective--as a teacher, parent, and former student--to a series of laugh-out-loud essays that show teaching at its most absurd and most rewarding. With brutal candor he chronicles his own lively adventures in modern education, from navigating cutthroat kindergarten sign-ups to subbing for a class experiment gone wrong--and dares to tell about it. He shares the surprising lessons he's learned in the trenches of his profession, including how to bribe a four-year-old (his own) to stop swearing in a Lutheran preschool and the best way to teach moody teenagers. Manage helicopter parents and cope with bullies--whether of the school-yard, Internet, or parental kind. And he offers tough love for cheaters who log on to then puts to rest forever the question of why new teachers gain weight (hint: the free donuts don't help). In Tales from the Teachers Lounge, Robert Wilder charts life's learning curve with a warmth and humor you don't find in textbooks. By turns heartwarming, eye-opening, and uproariously funny, these pitch-perfect essays offer priceless lessons in life, family, learning, and teaching from...
