

Parables of Milk and Might: Development Political Satire - The Voices of the Affected

PARABLES OF MILK
AND MIGHT Development Political Satire

>> The Voices of the Affected <<

Following over four decades of development policies, after the official end of colonialism in most countries in Africa, South America, and Asia, it is difficult for the industrial countries to foreign their economic interests in the developing countries. The book is a satirical look at the development of the countries in these countries, controlling or dictating the trend of economic and political developments, is proof of the protection of their interests.

The book is a satirical look at the development of the development sector, in particular, the relationship between the countries of the Global North and South.

The book uses a wonderful combination of wacky metaphor and humorous storytelling to get its message across.
