Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from As Regards Protoplasm, Vol. 2: In Reference to Mr. Huxley s Second Issue, and of Preface, in Reply to Mr. Huxley in Yeast; When this Essay was first published, the following was the prefatory note (October 1869): - The substance of the greater part of this paper, which has been in the present form for some time, was delivered, as a lecture, at a Conversazione of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh, in the Hall of the College, on the evening of Friday, the 30th of April last. It will be found to support itself, so far as the facts are concerned, on the most recent German physiological literature, as represented by Rindfleisch, Kuhne, and especially Stricker, with which last, for the production of his Handbuch, there is associated every great histological name in Germany. I may now state, without any more particular reference to the motives, whether general or special, which gave rise to it, that this essay of mine had but one thing to do. - to protest, namely, against the thoughtless...
