It is situated in the center of the county. It is 21 miles east of Greensboro and 50 miles from Raleigh, the State capital; and on the main line of the Southern Railroad from Greensboro to Goldsboro. We have a population of 6,000, with an immediate population of 5, 000 more. It is surrounded by small towns and mill villages as follows: Hopedale, Carolina, Glencoe, Alamance, and Osceola, thriving little towns in which are located large cotton mills employing hundreds of hands, Burlington being the trading center and post office for same. We have an active little city with every part of it throbbing and vibrating with industrial and commercial development. Graded Schools, churches, private schools, newspapers, telegraph and telephone lines, electric lights, railroads, and within a few months, street car...
