Cetywayo and his White Neighbours - Or, Remarks on Recent Events in Zululand, Natal, and the Transvaal - By H. Rider Haggard. I am told that these men (the Boers) are told to keep on agitating in this way, for a change of Government in England may give them again the old order of things. Nothing can show greater ignorance of English politics than such an idea. I tell you there is no Government Whig or Tory, Liberal, Conservative, or Radical who would dare, under any circumstances, to give back this country (the Transvaal). They would not dare, because the English people would not allow them. (Extract from Speech of Sir Garnet Wolseley, delivered at a Public Banquet in Pretoria, on the 17th December 1879.) There was a still stronger reason than that for not receding (from the Transvaal); it was impossible to say what calamities such a step as receding might not cause. . . . For such a risk he could not make himself responsible. . . . Difficulties with the Zulu and the frontier tribes would again arise, and...
