This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Titel. - Seminar paper from the year 2008 in the subject English - Literature, Works, printed single-sided, grade: 1,5, University of Heidelberg (Anglistisches Seminar), language: English, abstract: The American literature is a reflection of the socio-political developments in the different stages of the history of the country, and especially slavery is a crucial topic in it. Many works dealing with slavery have been published in the 19th, 20th and 21st century, and some of them have sparked debates that are not only on literary issues. Two of these are Herman Melville's (1819-1891) Benito Cereno (1855) and Mark Twain's (1835-1910, born Samuel Langhorne Clemens) Adventures of Huckleberry Finn (1884). These two novels are often seen as major works in American literary history, and their authors are among the country's most celebrated. Both books have in common that their stories play in the time before the abolition of slavery. Benito Cereno deals with a slave revolt on a ship, while Huckleberry Finn depicts the adventures of its eponymous hero and a runaway slave, Jim. Another feature the novels...

Reviews

This is the finest publication we have read through right up until now. Better than never, though I am quite late in start reading this one. Its been written in an remarkably easy way in fact it is only after I finished reading through this book by which basically altered me, affect the way I think.
